PRESS RELEASE

May 23, 2012

Nacogdoches County and City Officials are participating in the Regional Disaster Response Planning Workshop in The Woodlands. These officials, along with other local jurisdictions, are meeting with the Texas Division of Emergency Management, Texas Department of State Health Services, and several of the valued Emergency Management Council partner agencies and organizations. The participants from Nacogdoches are learning about the state capabilities and initiatives that are pertinent to our local communities. Nacogdoches County and City Officials are preparing for the upcoming hurricane season by participating in this workshop, as well as evaluating response concepts and reviewing existing plans.
