Commissioners Court adopts a Resolution for the Nacogdoches County Aging Committee to provide meals to homebound county residents

Today in a regular meeting of the Commissioner's Court, a Resolution for a grant made by Nacogdoches County was accepted by the Nacogdoches County Aging Committee, Inc. The organization provides home-delivered meals to homebound county residents.

The organization provides meals to approximately 167 homebound county residents each day and feeds 625 in the Nacogdoches County Senior Center each week.

The Senior Center has 6 full-time employees and approximately 35 volunteers.
