RE: Girl Scout Centennial Day

The Commissioners Court of Nacogdoches County proclaimed March 12, 2012 as "Girl Scouts Centennial Day". March 12, 2012 marks the 100th anniversary of Girl Scouting in the United States. For years, Girl Scouts has been building girls of character, confidence and courage. Girl Scouts encourages girls to become leaders in their own lives and achieve success in business, technology, science, engineering and math, or wherever she may choose to focus her energies. The San Jacinto Council is a pluralistic movement, committed to understanding our similarities and differences, building relationships and promoting a dialogue of acceptance and respect. Girl Scouts of the USA has declared 2012 as Year of the Girl to rally the nation around the cause of girls' leadership 3.2 million Girl Scouts nationwide will be celebrating this American tradition and will be inviting all girls, everywhere to join them as they commemorate Girl Scouts' centennial. Nacogdoches County is pleased to be a part of this memorable event.
