PRESS RELEASE

September 27, 2011

RE: NACOGDOCHES COUNTY EXTENSION AGENT NAMED

During a regular scheduled Commissioners Court meeting September 27, 2011 the Nacogdoches County Commissioners approved the position of the new Nacogdoches County Extension agent.

On June 30, 2011 the County received the resignation of Chad Gully who resigned from Nacogdoches County and took a position with Smith County.

A press release from the Overton office by Shelia Lewis, District Extension Administrator, Texas AgriLife Extension Service, headquartered at Overton, Texas has named Jamie Sugg as the new agent.

The Press release also states that Mr. Sugg earned a Bachelor of Science degree in Agricultural Economics from Texas A&M university in 1996. He also earned a Master of Science degree in Agricultural Education from Texas A&M in 1999. Mr. Sugg has work Experience as a County Extension Agent-4-H in Rusk County where he served from 2000 to 2004 and from 2007 to 2011. Between those stints in Rusk County, Sugg was a partner in Superior Transportation, a trucking company specializing in the shipment of agricultural commodities and feed ingredients.

The County Extension Office in Nacogdoches County is part of Texas AgriLife Extension Service, an agency of the Texas A&M University System. Local Extension programs extend university resources to local residents by providing practical information and education in the four areas of agriculture and natural resources, family and consumer sciences, 4-H and youth development, and community development. Extension is a cooperative effort of the United States Department of Agriculture, the State of Texas through Texas AA&M University, and the Nacogdoches County Commissioners' Court.

The County would like to welcome it's new agent Jamie Sugg.
