

OFFICE OF THE DISTRICT ATTORNEY

145TH JUDICIAL DISTRICT

NACOGDOCHES COUNTY, TEXAS

PARALEGAL II

---

About the Office:

It is the primary duty of the District Attorney's Office to prosecute felony criminal offenses in Nacogdoches County, Texas. Additionally, the office handles the county's juvenile caseload, initiates civil asset forfeiture proceedings, bond forfeiture proceedings, aids law enforcement in the investigation of criminal offenses, manages the pretrial diversionary program, and oversees the extradition of individuals accused of criminal offenses, among other duties.

Job Description:

The Nacogdoches County District Attorney's Office is currently seeking to fill a Paralegal II position. This paralegal position is responsible to the chief paralegal in the office and performs legal assistant work to aid prosecutors in accomplishing their responsibilities. Work involves handling the intake of cases submitted by law enforcement, uploading those cases into a software database, assigning those cases to prosecutors for review and presentation to the grand jury, drafting and filing motions, proposed orders, petitions, and responses through a cloud-based e-file system that are reviewed by prosecutors, among other duties. Work is expected to be performed with minimal supervision, providing for latitude with the expectation that the paralegal will utilize initiative and independent judgment.

Essential Duties:

- Work under the direction of the chief paralegal and in cooperation with staff to ensure that the workload is accomplished effectively, efficiently, and that duties are completed in a timely manner;
- Utilize knowledge and attention to detail regarding Texas criminal laws and procedure to accomplish the drafting and filing of motions, proposed orders, petitions, and responses;
- Operate computer programs such as Word and Excel and become familiar with navigating case management software and law enforcement databases for the intake of cases submitted by law enforcement;
- Assign cases to prosecutors for review and follow up on those cases to ensure they are being screened and presented before a grand jury in a timely fashion;
- Compile and analyze statistical data related to productivity in the prosecution of criminal cases, and establish targets for measuring success;
- Perform legal research, to include case law, statutes, rules, regulations, codes, records, and determine applicability to specific fact patterns and situations that call for responses to criminal and administrative issues, under the guidance of the chief paralegal and reviewed by prosecutors;
- Complete special projects as assigned by the chief paralegal;

Minimum Requirements:

Two (2) years of relevant experience performing legal assistant work in a legal office, law enforcement, community supervision, or regulatory enforcement environment required. Relevant experience may include, but is not limited to: drafting and interpreting legal documents; reviewing cases according to statute and rule requirements; investigative work utilizing the internet and other resources; legal database management and reporting; preparing exhibits for trial and legal research. Experience requirements may run concurrently. Knowledge of statutes and case law as it pertains to Texas criminal law and procedure is preferred. Graduation from high school or equivalent required. Graduation from an accredited four-year college or university, or certification as a legal assistant or paralegal preferred.

Remarks:

The successful candidate will have: (1) knowledge of criminal law proceedings and concepts such as jurisdiction, notice, and due process, knowledge of the Texas Penal Code, Texas Code of Criminal Procedure, the Texas Rules of Evidence and Civil Procedure, and the Public Information Act; (2) skill in using logic and reasoning to identify the strengths and weaknesses of cases, solutions, conclusions, or approaches to problems commonly faced in the prosecution of felonies; (3) the ability to use computers and applicable software, including Word, Excel, PowerPoint, internet and email, and, in the use of a computer to produce complex documents, and skill in the operation of office equipment; (4) experience to interpret, apply, and explain, orally and in writing, statutes, rules, codes, procedures, and policies, and to perform legal research; (5) the ability to evaluate work performed by others and provide meaningful feedback and to establish priorities, goals and objectives, as well as devise solutions to administrative problems; (6) the ability to adhere to policies and procedures, to monitor your workload, work processes, and trends of a work unit; (7) the ability to plan and manage multiple tasks or courses of action simultaneously and respond effectively to rapidly changing priorities in a highly visible setting; (8) excellent communication skills; and, (9) the ability to establish and maintain effective working relationships, motivate others to high levels of productivity, and interact tactfully and effectively with other employees and the public.

Salary:

The annual salary is $43,680.
